DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group 1, claim(s) 1-16, drawn to a method for the detection and characterization of primary tumors and separate areas of primary tumors.

RESTRICTION REQUIREMENT: Group 1 named above is subject to sequence restriction. Applicant must further select a specific sequence or a specific combination of polymorphic sequences. Applicant must select a specific set of three polymorphic sequences for Claim 6. The specific sequence or the specific combination of polymorphic sequences must include the set of three polymorphic sequences. Further only the primer pairs to the elected set of three will be searched on the merits. The polymorphic sequences do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the description fails to disclose that the polymorphic sequences share a common property or activity. While each polymorphic sequence may serve to isolate its own respective full length DNA, due to the lack of homology between the polymorphic sequences, one polymorphic sequence cannot be used to amplify the same region of DNA as another.

Moreover, since the polymorphic sequences are not homologous to each other, they fail to share a common structure, i.e., a significant structural element. The sugar-phosphate backbone cannot be considered a significant structural element, since all nucleic acid molecules share it. Therefore, the polymorphic sequences do not share any significant structural element and cannot be considered as having the same or corresponding technical feature. Therefore, the polymorphic sequences do not share any significant structural element and cannot be considered as having the same or corresponding technical feature.

There mere fact that the polymorphic sequences are derived from the same source (human genome) is not sufficient to meet the criteria for unity of invention. The polymorphic sequences fail to share a common property or activity and fail to share a common structure. Since neither of these two requirements is met, the group of polymorphic sequences claimed does not meet the requirement of unity of invention.

2. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Art Unit: 1634

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103 (a) of the other invention.

3. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
